Nathan Abels (b. 1980) Abels has been an active member in the Denver arts scene since 2007. He received his MFA in painting from the Savannah College of Art and Design and his BFA in Painting and Drawing from the University of Saint Francis. He was one of Westword's 100 Colorado Creatives for 2014. The Denver Post named him one of the "Twelve Best Colorado Artists 35 and Under" in 2011 and "Emerging Artist of the Year" in 2009. His work can be found in the Telfair Art Museum and the Savannah College of Art and Design in Savannah, GA, the Fort Wayne Art Museum in Fort Wayne, IN, Martin Sanders Investments, New York NY, and First Western Trust Bank, Denver, CO among others.

RULE Gallery has exhibited contemporary, abstract and conceptual works, including paintings, sculpture, photography, and works on paper, by both established and emerging national artists, since 1991. The gallery has locations in Denver, Colorado, and Marfa, Texas. For more information, visit www.rulegallery.com

Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art Founded in 1972 by a group of local artists, Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art (BMoCA) is one of Colorado's premier venues for the exploration of contemporary art. BMoCA provides enriching experiences for nearly 30,000 regional, national, and international visitors annually through innovative exhibitions and engaging programs for all audiences. In 1976 the organization moved to its current location in downtown Boulder, a 1906 historic landmark building that once served as a warehouse.

Throughout its history, BMoCA has been a vibrant cultural cornerstone in its community. Each year, the museum presents an ambitious exhibition schedule and an innovative series of educational programs for audiences of all ages and interests. By welcoming diverse aesthetics and perspectives, BMoCA provides an open forum for dialog and an investigation of contemporary art through the creative expression of ideas.
